HOUSTON, Nov. 21, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Refund Retriever is proud to announce our ongoing efforts have been recognized by Texas A&M University at the 12th annual Aggie 100 evening awards and reunion gala.

As a member of the 2016 Aggie 100, Refund Retriever is among the fastest-growing companies in the world, owned or operated by Texas A&M University Former Students. Brian Gibbs and Brandon Byers were both members of the Corps of Cadets and graduated with the Fighting Texas Aggie Class of 2001. Refund Retriever was ranked 18 with a compound annual growth rate of 76.51% from 2013 through 2015. The Aggie 100, created by Texas A&M University's Mays Business School, honors graduates from across several disciplines for their entrepreneurial endeavors and success as business leaders.

What does Refund Retriever do? FedEx and UPS guarantee a package to arrive on time or it's free, Refund Retriever finds all late packages and billing mistakes to save businesses money on small parcel and logistics spend. All of Refund Retriever's programming and technology is developed in house, no third parties ever have access to our programming or our customers information. There are no setup, monthly, or cancellation fees. If there are no refund credits, our customers owe us nothing!

Refund Retriever is a young, growing company. We believe in providing the best auditing service and customer experience. We have an outstanding user-friendly client interface, no monthly fees, great customer service, and no long term contract.

The 100 Aggie-owned businesses with the highest annual revenue growth were recognized on Friday, November 11, 2016, at an evening gala in the Hall of Champions at Texas A&M University's football stadium, Kyle Field.
